Case No. 2:15-cv-01493-JAD-NJK

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO EXTEND TIME TO COMPLY WITH LOCAL RULE 26-1

(First Request)

Plaintiff Connie Austin ("Plaintiff") and Defendants Railroad Pass Investment Group, LLC d/b/a Railroad Pass Casino and Marcus Gaming, LLC d/b/a Railroad Pass Casino (collectively "Defendants"), by and through their respective counsels of record, submit this stipulation to extend the time to comply with Local Rule 26-1 until after the parties attend an Early Neutral Evaluation ("ENE") session. This request is prompted by the parties' desire to engage in meaningful settlement discussions through the Court's ENE program, which may fully and finally resolve this dispute, without necessitating excessive spending on what may prove to be unnecessary discovery practice.

Moreover, the Parties believe that filing a Discovery Plan and Order at this time would only cause them to require extensions of various deadlines as an ENE date has not

1 yet been set. Therefore, as it would be more prudent to save judicial resources, the
2 parties stipulate that a formation of discovery plan required under Local Rule 26-1 should
3 be stayed until fourteen days after the ENE, and all time limits proscribed under Local
4 Rule 26-1(e) shall be stayed until that date.
